When I Need Extra Support

If things feel too much

Sometimes I may need a little extra support.

When I'm overwhelmed, I might:

☐ Become quiet or stop responding
☐ Find it difficult to speak
☐ Move around more than usual
☐ Feel upset or need to leave

What helps me in those moments:

.....

.....

Before we begin...

One thing I'm worried about:

.....

.....

.....

One thing that helped at a previous visit:

.....

.....

.....

Thank you for taking the time to understand me. Small adjustments can make a big difference.

My Dental Passport

Helping my dentist understand what works for me.

nova clinics

Everyone experiences the dentist differently. This passport helps me share what makes my visit easier.

Getting To Know Me

A little about me

Here's what I'd like my dental team to know.

How I prefer to communicate:

☐ Speaking
☐ Writing or pointing
☐ Pictures or gestures
☐ With help from someone I trust

When talking to me, please:

☐ Use clear, simple language
☐ Give me extra time to respond
☐ Explain things one step at a time
☐ Show me what you're going to do first

My stop signal

If I need you to stop, I will:
☐ Raise my hand
☐ Say "stop"
☐ Use another signal: .....

Something important about me

.....

.....

Making My Visit Easier

My sensory needs

Some things at the dentist can feel overwhelming.

Things I find difficult:

☐ Loud noises or vibrations
☐ Bright lights
☐ Being touched unexpectedly
☐ Strong tastes or smells
☐ Having things inside my mouth
☐ Lying back in the dental chair

What helps me feel comfortable

☐ Wearing headphones or sunglasses
☐ Having someone I trust nearby
☐ Taking short breaks
☐ Knowing what will happen next
☐ Seeing equipment before it's used
☐ Having a quieter environment

Something else that helps me:

.....

.....

.....

.....